| (ix) Shri O. P. Aggarwal, Chemist, National Museum, New Delhi | .. | Member |
| (x) Director of Archaeology, Archives and Museum, Haryana | .. | Member-Secretary |
2. The Headquarters of the Committee will be at Chandigarh.
 3. The Committee will meet at least twice in a year and often as may be necessary.
 4. The Committee will perform the following functions :—
 - (a) It shall advise the Haryana Government on the setting of a Central Records Office for proper storing, maintenance and preservation of public records.
 - (b) It shall further advise the State Government on the survey, acquisition and purchase of as many archival manuscripts and documents (including the rare private documents, paintings and books) relating to the past history of the State, in private custody, by donation, loan or sale and unearthing and acquiring private papers of eminent persons and old families of Haryana.
 - (c) It shall take necessary steps to arouse public interest and enthusiasm for the past records of Haryana by means of exhibition, radio talks, educational pamphlets, documentary films on archival science and related topics, etc., and to induce individuals, institutions, firms and societies to send their documents relating to Haryana's past history to Haryana State Archives for proper preservation and use by the Research Scholars.

5. Procedure.—All proposals for the donation, loan and purchase of private documents, etc., so surveyed by the State will be preferred by the Member-Secretary to the Committee at its meeting to consider the historical value of the documents. The Committee, besides expressing the historical value and its usefulness for research will also fix a reasonable price to be offered to its owner, in case the owner so demands. Notwithstanding the above, with a view to avoid inordinate delays in the small cases, when the recommendations of the Committee can not be obtained in any particular case or cases within a reasonable time even by circulation, if the material is of the historical importance and involves Rs. 200 or less, it may be purchased by the Member-Secretary of the Committee with the approval of the Chairman, who will also indicate while giving his approval, the reasonable price to be offered to the owner. Information regarding such purchases made without prior reference to the Committee shall invariably be placed before the Committee at its next meeting alongwith the information, if any, regarding the acquisition made either by gift or by deposit, etc.

6. Three members will form quorum for a meeting and one of them will be non-official member.

7. The non-official members will draw their T.A./D.A. in accordance with the instructions contained in the Chief Secretary to Government, Haryana circular U.O. No. 670-Pol(4)-72, dated 4th April, 1972, and the expenditure on account of this will be debited to the head "278—Art and Culture—C—Promotion of Art and Culture (Non-Plan)". The Director of Archaeology, Archives and Museum, Haryana, Member-Secretary of this Committee, will be Controlling Officer authorised to countersign the T. A. bills of the non-official members.

The official members will draw their T. A./D.A from their respective departments and the expenditure on this account will be debited to the head from where they draw their pays.

8. This issues with the concurrence of the Finance Department,—vide their U.O. No. 106-2FD(III)-75, dated 12th February, 1975
